

4th the Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement's Annual Native Hawaiian Conference Na Wai Ke Kuleana? Na Kakou! Who Is Responsible? We All Are!

August 30, 2005 – September 2, 2005 • Sheraton Waikiki Hotel

The Annual Native Hawaiian Conference brings together over 200 Native organizations and 600 individuals to one of the largest gatherings focused on community development held in Hawaii!

It is organized to bring the Hawaiian community and their partners together, to share successes and solutions in the areas of health, environment, housing, education, culture, human services and economic development.

2005 Annual Native Hawaiian Conference Sponsors

CNHA is a national association of over 130 member nonprofits and firms dedicated to Native Hawaiian community development initiatives. Its goals are to support the work of nonprofit organizations focused on Native populations through public policy education, mobilizing resources and strengthening capacity.
